Orlando, FL – CareerSource Brevard, CareerSource Central Florida, and CareerSource Flagler Volusia are once again uniting their collective resources to host the 2nd Regional Business Summit on Thursday, October 29, 2015 from 7:30 a.m. - 12:00 p.m. at the Florida Hotel and Conference Center in Orlando.

This one-of-a-kind, half-day summit brings together human resource professionals, business owners, community leaders and elected officials from eight Central Florida counties. Attendees will gain insights into the region's workforce, discover industry best practices, grow professionally, and discover the resources needed to help businesses succeed.

This year's summit will focus on human resources' legal issues, multi-generational communication in the workplace, and a panel discussion revolving around building regional talent incubators.

Participants will have the opportunity to network with some of the area's foremost business theorists and visionaries; engage with business and workforce experts, executives, and partners; and discover in-demand technologies they need and want to embrace today, for tomorrow.

Change the way you look at conducting business, learn how to better communicate across cultures, and explore options regional leaders are working on to ensure a bright business future for our region.
