CSCF PARTNERS WITH PEPSI & DISABILITY SOLUTIONS TO HELP VETERANS, OTHERS WITH DISABILITIES FIND SUSTAINABLE CAREERS

Orlando, FL – CareerSource Central Florida is proud to partner with Pepsi North American Beverages (NAB) and Disability Solutions to host a two-day open house hiring event on Monday, August 3 and Tuesday, August 4 from 9:00 a.m. to 3:00 p.m. at CareerSource Central Florida’s South Orange Career Center, located next to the Florida Mall. The address is 1563 Florida Mall Avenue, Orlando, FL 32809.

The event is called Pepsi ACT – Achieving Change Together, and is a formal partnership between Pepsi North American Beverages (NAB) and Disability Solutions to proactively recruit, train and hire individuals with disabilities, including Veterans with disabilities.

“CareerSource Central Florida is excited about this opportunity to continue its efforts in exploring ways and partnering with those who seek to assist Veterans and individuals with disabilities in finding meaningful and sustainable careers,” said Pamela J. Nabors, CareerSource Central Florida President/CEO. “These are under-utilized segments of our population that have great talent and skills in helping our Central Florida businesses succeed.”

In addition to mechanics, technicians and managers, onsite screenings will take place for warehouse loaders, merchandisers & delivery drivers. Basic qualifications for positions include being at least 18 years of age. Other qualifications are position-based, some of which may include having a CDL license and the ability to pass a DOT physical and road test.

All qualified applicants will receive consideration for employment without regard to race, color, religion, sex, national origin, protected veteran status, or disability status. PepsiCo is an equal opportunity employer Minorities/Females/People with Disabilities/Protected Veterans.

Those interested should confirm their attendance by sending an email to either Keith.Meadows@abilitybeyond.org, or RBrown@careersourcecf.com, and bring resumes to the event.
