

Course Description: Healthcare

The healthcare program will engage students in virtual activities taught by an experienced instructor from the Health Science and nursing field. Students will learn and demonstrate mathematics and science knowledge and skills, legal and ethical responsibilities specific to healthcare, provide emergency care, apply principles of nutrition and fitness, assist with restorative (rehabilitative) activities, demonstrate knowledge of blood-borne diseases, and more.

Students have the opportunity to earn CPR and First Aid certification.