i4 Business Spirit of Progress Award!

We already know that Pam Nabors is an outstanding leader who's deeply passionate about helping our community and readily shares her knowledge to connect and help others. She's steered CSCF through an extraordinarily challenging economic time through this pandemic. And now even more of Central Florida knows it too. Pam was recently honored with i4 Business magazine's "Spirit of Progress" Award at the 2021 Women's Inspired Leadership Virtual Awards ceremony.

CSCF's Sterling Journey Marches On

We are one step closer to excellence. This month, the CSCF team participated in a final review in the years' long quest to obtain the Governor's Sterling Award. Every department had representatives who participated in rigorous and detailed, virtual interviews to review processes, procedures, and data. Next up - the panel of certified Sterling Examiners has submitted their scores and feedback to the judges who will review this information provided and make a final decision on whether CSCF will win the Governor's Sterling Award. We'll find out the result in May and the award ceremony is in early June so please stay tuned.

Media News: Getting Central Florida Back to Work

Mark your calendars for Saturday, March 27 at 7:30 p.m.

Do you have plans for Saturday night? Tune in to WFTV-TV (Channel 9) at 7:30 p.m. for a special report dedicated to CSCF's programs and services and how we are helping Central Floridians get back to work. The 22-minute segment will feature Pam Nabors giving an overview of CSCF's history, services, and programs available for our community, as well as interviews with CSCF customers who found new opportunities after being impacted by the pandemic. The segment will be hosted by WFTV anchor Vanessa Echols and reporters Deanna Allbrittin and Karen Parks. We'll send out a link once it airs so you can share on your organization's social media channels as well!

Osceola Community Connections

North Star Strategy: Value Creation through Relationships

CSCF's Osceola Career Center hosted two recent visits from new Board member, Stella Siracuza and Osceola Commissioner Olga Castano and their guests. Both wanted to deepen their understanding of our services in order to better advocate CSCF's value with their community and business connections in Osceola County.
