Addition Financial and CareerSource Central Florida Expand Partnership

Lake Mary, Fla. (September 28, 2020) – Earlier this year, Addition Financial was named the Platinum Sponsor of CareerSource Central Florida’s Summer Youth Program. Now, in order to best serve the community’s needs, the two organizations have expanded their partnership to serve all age groups.

“During this global pandemic, we at Addition Financial know that we have the power to make a meaningful impact during COVID-19. We are proud to work alongside another organization with a people helping people mindset, and look forward to serving our community together,” said Katie Thomasson, Vice President of Community Engagement at Addition Financial.

Through this partnership, Addition Financial will provide free virtual financial education resources for all age groups, offering healthy money tips and other helpful tools to foster financial success. Career seekers at CareerSource Central Florida are eligible for credit union membership at Addition Financial, a safe and secure financial institution to set up their direct deposits.

In addition, the credit union will collaborate with CareerSource Central Florida on blog content, podcast episodes and other educational platforms that serve all age groups.

“Arming our career seekers with vital financial knowledge and skills will build a solid foundation for success,” said Mimi Coenen, Chief Operating Officer at CareerSource Central Florida. “Not only is financial literacy the key to managing money effectively, but it also helps individuals thrive and successfully navigate their careers.”
