CSCF Performance Update

With Central Florida's economy still in recovery, CSCF is an integral part of that recovery as we engage customers, deliver talent acquisition for businesses, and serve the community through the pandemic. We're on target in some of our highest-priority goals. We invite you to view this week's latest performance update and how CSCF is making a difference in the lives of Central Floridians.

Summer Youth Program to Invest in 1,500 Young Adults

To better connect our local young adults to career prosperity, we have officially launched our 2021 Summer Youth Program. With a hybrid approach of in-person and virtual experiences, we're preparing young adults in Central Florida for success in tomorrow's workforce, while partnering with educators and local businesses to help ignite their potential in the early stages of their career journeys. Stay tuned for more information about how to sponsor a Summer Youth Intern.

TRENDS

New! Board Member Portal

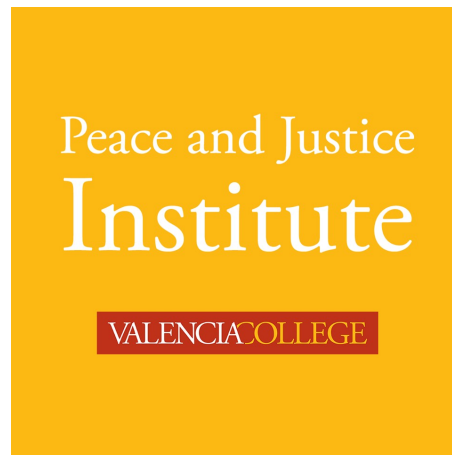

We're excited to announce we have a brand new portal on the CareerSource Central Florida website designed with Board and Consortium members in mind. It's one central location where you can easily access a variety of tools, resources, and information, including Board training videos. Please note you can access this dedicated Board Portal by visiting www.CareerSourceCentralFlorida.com/BoardPortal.

Valencia College's Peace and Justice Institute

Last month, we shared information about the Orlando Economic Partnership's Diversity, Equity and Inclusion (DEI) pledge that was signed by more than 100 Central Florida leaders, including Pam Nabors. The pledge signified a commitment to raising the growth potential within the workplace and of its residents by creating opportunities for those long-affected by racial inequality and ensuring pathways for participation in the economy. For CSCF, as part of that commitment, this means action...

We're Mad about MAD (Making A Difference)

Thanks to Mark Wylie for his recent support to help increase business engagement with S.I. Goldman and Co. working with our Seminole County office and sharing that on LinkedIn. This is yet another example of our Board Members' involvement and we are truly grateful.

Media Coverage: Noticias Univision Orlando

Deepening our connection with the Hispanic community is among CSCF's highest priorities. For the past few months, CSCF Program Manager Yaralise Colon has promoted our organization in her weekly Univision segment that airs on Monday and Wednesday mornings and via Facebook Live (NoticiasYa Orlando) in Spanish. Yaralise continues to share the latest opportunities for the Hispanic community in Central Florida through this segment.
